I solve engineering, education, and art problem with my engineering background and ability of others. I love interacting with people and getting inspired through various projects such as research, design, art work, and education. Through technological and humanistic point of view, I've been trying to create inspirational experience.

Professional Experience

Samsung Electronics, Digital Appliances Division, Core Component R&D Lab Jan 2019 – Present
Mechanical Design Intern

Analyze spring and damper mounted hinge and deploy the result on interactive data platform to simplify design process. Propose possible mechanical improvements of mass produced hinge through computational analysis.

Sovoro Jan 2018 – Apr 2018
